

OUR FELLER CITIZENS

By HI SIBLEY

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI DAY.

Alumnus Neal Welch, class '12, is seeking the higher education at Indiana university. He was pledged Delta Tau quicker'n a wink.

Alumnus Charles Berteling, class '12, took a two-day trip down the river last summer. His lunch the first day consisted of pork tenderloin roasted over a campfire, Nabisco wafers and soda crackers. The second day his lunch consisted of soda crackers.

Alumnus Leland Rowe, class '11, is attending Wabash college and the brightest spot in his Christmas vacation is the annual Pan-Hellenic banquet.

Alumnus Paul Paxson, class '10, is learning to be a scientific farmer at Ames, Iowa. He has become so expert in his line that he can look a potato in the eye and tell you just what it is thinking about.

Alumnus Irvin Dolk, class '09, occupies a desk next ours, and is so saturated with statistics and general information that we have dispensed with the dictionary and encyclopedia entirely. He can tell us anything we desire to know, from the number and depth of canals on Mars to the price of eggs in March, 1899.

Alumnus Gale Harrop, class '08, is a thoroughly educated young man. Not content with a course at the University of Wisconsin, he absorbed additional learning at Harvard, and holds degrees from both institutions.

Alumnus Donald Kahn, class '07, is our most promising short story writer. He contributes regularly to the popular magazines and while attending the University of Michigan wrote a play for the Comedy club which scored a big hit.

Alumnus Wilbert Ward, class '06, is now a member of a New York law firm. We have some recollection of Wilbert's working in a foundry at the hardest kind of manual labor during his summer vacations before he had finished college.

Alumnus Myron Buck, '05, was a member of the crew of the "Zlothub," Capt. Bob Hardy, which cruised down the St. Joe about 15 years ago. Myron was the youngest seaman on board.

Alumnus Willard Stephenson, class '04, used to own a little brown pony called Roxy. His brother, Don, had a half interest in the pet, and each of the boys resorted to all sorts of strategy to unload the grooming and feeding on to the other.

Alumnus Noel Dunbar, class '03, played on the Yale varsity football team somewhere around 1907 or '07. While on the Yale freshman team he had the unique pleasure of bumping into Theodore Roosevelt, jr., of the Harvard freshman team.

Alumnus Warren Davies, class '02, when a boy in Chapin park was acknowledged the best baseball player on Anderson's field, and was elected captain of every team in succession. He moved out of the neighborhood in the height of the season one summer, and thus gave the runners-up a chance to star.

Alumnus Harold Herr, class '01, once floated down the river on a raft made of porch-pillars, and was having a bang-up time until the current swept his craft under an overhanging tree and brushed him into the water. After that he lost interest in the expedition.

Alumnus Dr. Edgar Myers, class '00, was a member of the star football team of that year, and twice played out the game with a broken collar bone.

Alumnus Dayton Applegate, class '99, was a camera enthusiast, and at one time was engaged in commercial photography in Ithaca, N. Y.

Alumnus Forest Hillier, class '98, wit his family took a trip to California right in the midst of a stretch of particularly severe winter weather, thereby creating considerable envy.

Alumnus John Busby, class '97, has been treasurer of the C. A. club for two years, and receives your dues with such genuine pleasure that it is more fun to pay them than it is to let them run.

Alumnus Louis Elbel, class '96, studied music abroad and appeared before most of the crowned heads of Europe as well as many bald heads on this side.

Alumnus Harry Badet, class '95, is a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity, and the same chapter (Purdue) to which George Ade and John T. McCutcheon belong.

Alumnus James Taylor, class '94, lives in one of the most attractive houses on one of the best streets in the city.

Alumnus Kenneth Chapman, class '93, used to be quite a pen and ink artist, and at last reports was living in Las Vegas, N. M.

Alumnus Chas. Muesel, class '92, is a charter member of Cap. Shuey's alley rats, which is a real distinction.

Alumnus Byron Miller, class '91, is also a member of the same organization. He has charge of the junior debating league.

Alumnus Thomas Slick, class 1890, bought the third automobile that Henry Ford ever built. It was constructed in an old barn up in Detroit.

P. O. RECEIPTS INCREASE.
Postoffice receipts for the month of October compiled by Finance Clerk Henderson, show a substantial increase. The total was $22,965.21. The receipts for October, 1912, were $21,386.87. The local office remitted $11,197.60 to Indianapolis, besides turning over $2,000 to the money order department.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Beautify Your Hair!
Make It Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair fine and downy at first, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.
